CHAPTER 502

AN ACT

October 15, 1951
[S. 283]

For the relief of Akiko Mitsuahata.

Akiko Mitsuahata.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the immigration laws relating to the exclusion of aliens inadmissible because of race shall not hereafter apply to Akiko Mitsuahata, Yokohama, Japan, the Japanese fiancée of Douglas Dean Whitney, a citizen of the United States and an honorably discharged veteran of World War II, and that Akiko Mitsuahata shall be eligible for a visa as a non-immigrant temporary visitor for a period of three months: Provided, That the administrative authorities find that the said Akiko Mitsuahata is coming to the United States with a bona fide intention of being married to said Douglas Whitney, and that she is found otherwise admissible under the immigration laws. In the event the marriage between the above-named parties does not occur within three months after the entry of said Akiko Mitsuahata, she shall be required to depart from the United States and upon failure to do so shall be deported in accordance with the provisions of sections 19 and 20 of the Immigration Act of February 5, 1917 (U. S. C., title 8, secs. 155 and 156). In the event the marriage between the above-named parties shall occur within three months after the entry of said Akiko Mitsuahata, the Attorney General is authorized and directed to record the lawful admission for permanent residence of said Akiko Mitsuahata as of the date of payment by her of the required visa fee and head taxes.

39 Stat. 889, 890.

Approved October 15, 1951.
